

Additional Required Readings for Diabetes Lectures-Primary Care Fall 2000

1. Winters, S & Jernigan, V (2000). Vascular disease risk markers in diabetes: Monitoring & intervention. The Nurse Practitioner, 25(6), 40, 43,46,49,53,54,56,62,64-65.
2. Boulton-Warren, E; Greenberg, R; Lising M; & Gallivan, J (1999). An update on primary care management of type 2 diabetes. The Nurse Practitioner, 24(12), 14-6, 19-20, 23-4.
3. Ahroni, JH (1998). Diabetes education and the primary care provider. Nurse Practitioner Forum, 9(2), 66-8.
4. Aiello, JH (1998). Preventing diabetic neuropathy: the role of primary care. The Nurse Practitioner, 23(2), 12-3, 17-8, 23-4.
5. Buse, JB (1998). Management of glycemia in type 2 diabetes. Clinical Cornerstone, 1(3), 39-57.
6. Rith-Najarian, S; Branchaud, C; Beaulieu, O; Gohdes, D; Simonson G; Mazze R (1998). Reducing lower-extremity amputations due to diabetes. Application of the staged diabetes management approach in a primary care setting. Journal of Family Practice, 47(2), 127-32.
7. American Diabetes Association (1998). Standards of Medical Care for Patients with Diabetes. Diabetes Care, 21(suppl 1), s23, 25,27,29,31.

In addition, each student should have browsed the American Diabetes Association's Web site located at <http://www.diabetes.org/> prior to class.